New Members

We welcome two new members to our club. They were inducted during a formal ceremony at the Holiday Banquet by PDG Chris Barbieri. The new members are Marge Langston, and Jessica Littlejohn. Sponsors are Lions Linda Larson and PDG Larry Winters. Please introduce yourselves and welcome these Lions in to our club. And be sure to sign their welcome sheets.

Sounds Like. . .

- Why the English language is difficult to learn;
- The bandage was wound around the wound.
- He could lead if he would get the lead out.
- The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert.
- When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
- The insurance was invalid for the invalid.
- They were too close to the door to close it.

Program Notes

The program for Tuesday, January 21 will be presented by PDG Chuck Shurtleff. The topic of discussion will be on Liberty Day.

January is Glaucoma Awareness Month

Millions of Americans are at risk of losing their eyesight to glaucoma, a leading cause of blindness in the United States. At high risk for developing glaucoma are African-Americans over age 40, everyone over age 60, and people with a family history of the disease.

50th Anniversary

It was recommended to the club that we should vote on a proposed club pin for the 50th Anniversary at the January Business Meeting.

New Club Officers

Due to the vacancy of the First Vice President, the following changes were approved by majority vote by the board of directors. Lion David Bovee will now assume the position of First Vice President. Lion Mary Ann Barbieri was elected to Second Vice President. Lion Jim Peterson was elected as a Director to fill the position that was held by Lion Mary Ann. These changes are effective for the remainder of this Lions year.

Ever Wonder?

If a pig loses its voice, is it disgruntled?

When someone offers you a penny for your thoughts, and you put in your two cents' worth, what happens to the other penny?

Why do overlook and oversee mean opposite things?

Nominations

With the Lions year half over, it is time to think about the selection of officers for the next Lions year that will begin in July. Lion David Bovee has been selected as chairman of the Nominating Committee. Two more Lions will be selected to serve on this committee. This committee will report at the March Business Meeting on a slate of candidates. The club will vote in April.
