Justice may be blind, but it can also have a funny bone. These are actual statements made in courtroom trials, as collected by Mary Louise Gilman in her books Humor in the Court and More Humor in the Court:

Q: Doctor, did you say he was shot in the woods?
A: No, I said he was shot in the lumbar region.

Q: Could you see him from where you were standing?
A: I could see his head.
Q: And where was his head?
A: Just above his shoulders.

Q: Any suggestions as to what prevented this from being a murder trial instead of attempted murder?
A: The victim lived.

Attorney #1: When he went, had you gone and had she, if she wanted to and were able, for the time being excluding all the restraints on her not to go, gone also, would he have brought you, meaning you and she, with him to the station?

Attorney #2: Objection. That question should be taken out and shot.
