During Lion Tanner's year as District Governor the Leo club in Pickers County was one of the most active clubs. Food items were collected. They adopted a mile of Highway on which they kept clean. The Jasper Lions club sponsored this Leo club with Jasper Lioness, Peggie Chapman, with Jasper Lion, Clint Chapman serving as Liason Officer for the Jasper Lions club. During this year Garner Andrews was chosen to represent District 18A in the Exchange program. He chose Spain as his exchange country. He spent approximately six months there.

The Convention of District A was held Saturday March 26, 1994 at the Walker Co Civic Center. The speaker was International Director William Larry Young of Detroit, Michigan. Lion Toni Walters announced that she will be a candidate for the Office of District Governor. Lion Jack Reynolds, Vice District Governor and Lion Hubert Hobbs, District Librarian have qualified. Lion Wayne O'Neal has qualified for Vice President of Camp for the Blind.

Membership in District 18A on July 1, was 1573 as of January 31 the membership was 1581. A gain of +8.
