

Lion Snowden of Zebulon, GA has been active in her club, Pike Co. Lions club, in the Lions International Youth Exchange program and in Pike County Community affairs. She joined the club in 1991.

She served as President in 1993 to 1995, Zone Chairman in 1996-97 Lions year; she was a 100% President, Zone Chairman and Vice Governor.

Loretta has won the Golden Chain award and received 2 International Presidents Certificates of Appreciation.

President elect Jim Erwin was the principal speaker at a Testimonial dinner for Mason Zuber, member of the Macon Lions club for more than 60 years, on September 17 at the Georgia Children's Home. This meeting was to honor Mason Zuber for his outstanding service to the Lions and community around Macon, GA.

Alice H. Stagg became President of the Columbus Lions club. The club claimed two unique firsts in its 76 year history.

Not only did Lion Alice become the first female President but she was the first child of a former President of the club to be elected to the same office. Her father, H. M. Herin was President of the club in 1929. Heron was only 26 years old with 5 years experience in the business world when he became President.

District Governor Loretta Snowden, the first female Governor in 18E, inducted Lion Alice to the office.

The Macon Southside Lions club Bulletin, edited by Shirley Husky, wife of past District Governor Husky, has been named top bulletin and newsletter in the State of GA for the past two years.

Lion Joe Harney of the Thomaston club received the International President's Appreciation certificate.

The new club of Yatesville, GA Lions club was chartered. Past Extension Chairman, past District Governor, Don Norris; past District Governor Jim Huskey; Guiding Lion and Extension Chairman, Cecil Daniels were instrumental in getting this club organized. There were some 100 people in attendance.

Freddy Butts is the new President and since he runs a restaurant, he will cater the meals for the club.

The program included Daniel Jackson, a Carrollton Lion as Master of Ceremony. Past District Governor Harris Satterfield of the LaGrange club was the main speaker.

There were 24 of the 28 charter members present, including seven members of the Gassett family.

District 18E held another charter night for the Macon Tri-City club. The club will be devoted to addressing health problems in the minority community. This was a new concept in Lionism. The Macon Evening club was the sponsor. Lion Joe Lawson was the guiding Lion.

District Governor Snowden held the 2nd Cabinet meeting on November 14, 1998 at the Youth building in Riverdale, GA.

Lion Marley Adams, a long time member and former President of the Southside Lions club, was recognized in central Georgia for outstanding volunteerism.

18E held its cabinet meeting and banquet in Columbus on February 20, 1999. The theme was built around St Patrick Day. International Director, Jack Stuart of Jacksonville, Florida was the speaker for the weekend.

International Director presented Certificates of Appreciation to Alma Johnson of the East Columbus club; Gus Furlong, Bonanza Lions club; Alice Stagg, President of the Columbus club and Val Valenzuela, nominations and elections Chairman of the Columbus Muscogee club.

The 18E District elected Norman Rowe of the Greenville club as district Governor and Tom Jackson of the Carrollton Evening club as Vice District Governor.

Past District Elden Elzworth agreed to finish out past District Governor's year as Vice President of the Lighthouse. International Director Stuart presented his personal Lions club banner to Carol P. Spain, President of the Districts newest club, the Tri-City club in Macon; past District Governor Terry Rowe, Council Chairman; District Governor, Loretta Snowden and Zone Chairman, Scott Bates.

It was announced that the Incoming Cabinet Secretary would be Mary Ann Dawes and the Cabinet Treasurer would be PDG Bob King.

At the District E's final meeting at Manchester, Merle Freeman of the Forsyth Lions club was introduced as an honorary member of the club and widow of Bill Freeman, Charter President(1936) of the club.

The Carrollton club donated $1939 to Leader Dog honoring the year it was founded 1929. The District total for Leader Dog from District E was $7600.
