

SOUTHEASTERN LIONS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

January 6, 2005

Dear Lion Leader:

The Planning Committee of the Lions Leadership Institute is excited to announce that we have been endorsed to hold another regional leadership institute in the southeast. In cooperation with the Leadership Division of Lions Clubs International, five experienced Lion leaders have put in place an outstanding curriculum for both new and senior Lions to develop and enhance their leadership skills. Emphasis is placed on individual participation in a relaxed learning environment.

The Institute is scheduled from lunch at 12:00 noon EST on Thursday, April 14, 2005, through the graduation luncheon on Sunday, April 17, 2005. Sign in and supplies distribution will begin at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 14.

Topics include goal setting and meeting management, group dynamics and team building, personality and leadership styles, problem solving and conflict resolution, delegation and mobilization of volunteers, diversity and inter-cultural communication, protocol, Lion fundamentals, mentoring, and public speaking.

The Institute will be located in the conference facility of Camp Dogwood, Sherrills Ford, North Carolina. Camp Dogwood is a 41 acre campus located on Lake Norman in Catawba County.

This package of materials is being sent to the eight southeastern states within a reasonable driving distance of Camp Dogwood, so we encourage you to make timely distribution of the information in order that your zone or club will have one or more applicants who meet the April 1, 2005, deadline. Please feel free to duplicate this information and to distribute it to any Lion you feel is qualified.

Should you have questions, contact any of the faculty listed below.

Respectfully in Lionism,

PCC Dr. Beverly A. Roberts, 706-592-2982, GAlionBAR@aol.com
